Sta: A chair of paleontology is vacant in the Muse Sign: A chair of paleontology is vacant in the Museum of Natural History of Paris, by the death of M. d'Orbigny. You are French; you have enriched your native country with eminent works and laborious researches; you are a corresponding member of the institute. The Emperor would be happy to restore to France a distinguished man of science, a renowned professor. I offer you, in his name, the vacant chair. Your country will deem herself happy in recovering one of her children, the most devoted of science.

Be pleased to accept, sir, the assurance of my sentiments of high esteem.

THE FAILURE OF CHOUTEAU & CO.

The St. Louis Republican of Monday last says: "The failure of the house of P. Chouteau, jr., & Co., in New York, is attributable mainly to its connexion with the Illinois Central Railroad Company, now involved in pecuniary difficulties. Mr. Chouteau is a large stock-holder in that corporation. Within two or three months an instalment of ten per cent. upon the whole capital (not far from twenty millions) was called for, to meet indebtedness which had been incurred. It has been stated, also, that the road does not any expenses, and that pronot far from twenty millions) was called for, to meet indebtedness which had been incurred. It has been stated, also, that the road does not pay expenses, and that provision has to be made for them. The land fund is set apart for the payment of the principal and interest due to the bondholders, and cannot be used for any other purpose. It is a reasonable calculation to say that this fund will pay the whole cost of the road eventually, but the stockholders have to wait many years before this can be realized, and meanwhile the road is losing money. It takes strong backers to keep up a road under these circumstances. The stock has depreciated greatly in value, and stockholders may well give way under such a pressure. This is, we imagine, the real cause of the suspension of the house of P. Chouteau, jr., & Co., and not any immediate connexion with the house of Chouteau, Harrison, & Valle. It is enough to bring a cloud of sadness over every one when so old a house is, from any cause, compelled to suspend, even for a limited period. Very general sympathy was expressed for the members of the house of Chouteau, Harrison, & Valle, and the operatives thrown out of employment by their suspension. The business in which they have been engaged, both at the lind mountain and in this city, ought to be revived as soon as possible."

On Saturday, about noon, the Star of the West passed the dead body of a man floating upon the surface support-ed by a life-preserver. It was off the capes of Virginia, and the sea was rough at the time. It was supposed to be one of the passengers of the Central America.

"The Prensa says that advices from the interior represent rain storms prevailing everywhere with greater or less violence. The Matanas papers state that much alarm is felt for the crops. The Trinidad and Puerto Principe prints repeat the same story.

"The Prensa gives a flattering account nevertheless of the prospects of the crops. The yield of sugar will probably be very heavy. The tobacco fields do not look so well, the plants having suffered heavily from alternate drought and wet; it is expected, however, that the quality of the leaf will be very superior, equal to the best of "At Matanass, on the 19th, a capture was made of a desperate gang of rumaway negroes, who had fortified themselves in the mountains. the great fair in that city, says:

The entire receipts from the gates and entries will amount to $30,000, or thereabouts, and, under all the circumstances, our fair can boast of being the most brilliant one held in any State during the year, the National Fair not excepted. It may be regarded as a fixed and permanent institution, and at the next Annual Fair there will be additional improvements worthy the interest that attaches to it as an important and interesting feature in the great West, and reflecting additional credit upon the enterprise of St. Louis and her citizens.

Norfolk Day Book says a magnificent gold pocket chro-nometer and chain have been forwarded to Samuel T. The unusually cold nights of the present week have been attended with heavy frosts in some localities. In Albany the thermometer indicated 32 degrees on Tuesday. A white frost was visible over the surface of the ground generally; also, in Bridgeport, Connecticut. The Hartford Times of Wednesday says: "We have at length to chronicle the occurrence of a good stiff white frost; the first this season that has shown itself upon the grass and vegetables. At 6 o'clock the mercury was at 32 degrees—the freezing point. Clear sky, northwest wind. Corn, as a general thing, where it has not already been gathered, is believed to be beyond the reach of injury."

The New Orleans Picayune of the 30th says: "The schooner Star, Captain Thompson, seventy bours from Tampa Bay, arrived yesterday in the New Basin, bringing Company I, 4th United States artillery, and a detachment from other companies of the same regiment. These troops are on their way to Fort Leavenworth, and under the command of Captain A. L. Magilton and Lieut. W. Letbern."

The New York Express says: "There will be no Collins steamer from this port on Saturday for Liverpool.
The Atlantic was to leave Liverpool, for this port, on the
